

CURRICULUM VITAE JACQUES VAN RIJCKEVORSEL

Chairman of the Board

Cliniques Universitaires Saint-Luc

PROFILE

Solvay (1974-2014)

Jacques van Rijckevorsel (1950) is Civil Engineer from the Université Catholique de Louvain (la-Neuve) (1974) and followed Executive Education at Insead (1991) and Harvard (2000). He spent his whole career at Solvay (1974-2014).

From 2000 to 2014, after several functions in Brussels, Italy and the Netherlands, is member of the Group Executive Committee with various responsibilities: management of the Plastics Processing Sector and of the Plastics Sector, supervision of the Group Innovation... Chairman a/o board member of subsidiaries and affiliates.

Actively participates in the transformation of the Group: strategic updates, purchase and sale of businesses, creation and exit of Joint Ventures, internal growth, rationalizations, ...

Parallel mandates: president of the Chamber of Commerce of Belgium-Luxembourg for Russia and Belarus (2010-2014), president of PlasticsEurope (European Association of Plastics Manufacturers, 2008-2011) and member of the Executive Committee and of the Board of CEFIC (European Council of Chemical industry, 2010-2012).

CURRENT MANDATES (SELECTION, JANUARY 2017)

Chairman of the Board of directors of the Cliniques universitaires Saint Luc (Brussels) and director of the Foundation Saint Luc (related). Director of the Queen Elisabeth Medical Foundation Director of the de Duve Institute Director of N-Side Director of Synergia Medical Member of the Consultative Committee of ING Belgium (Brussels) Member of the Executive Board of the Fondation Louvain (UCL, Louvain-la-Neuve)

OTHERS

Testimonials and conferences on a.o. the relationship between Enterprise and Progress (author of the Book " L'entreprise, un moteur de progrès ?" Thélès, Paris 2012) as well as on Solar Impulse (project he initiated and supervised at Solvay).