ORDINARY GENERAL MEETING OF 11 MAY 2022

ITEM N° 10.3 OF THE AGENDA - APPOINTEMENT OF MRS ANNELEEN DESMYTER

CURRICULUM VITAE OF MRS ANNELEEN DESMYTER

Anneleen Desmyter (born in 1976, Belgian nationality) obtained her degree in Applied Economics at the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven in 1998 and her Master in Business Administration at the Université Catholique Louvain-la-Neuve in 1999.

In 2004, she successfully completed a Master in Real Estate at the University of Antwerp Management School.

Anneleen Desmyter is a member of the BIV (Beroepsinstituut van Vastgoedmakelaars) and has acquired the title of MRICS.

Anneleen Desmyter started her career in 1999 as Project Manager at project developer Eurinpro (now: Goodman International), where she was responsible for the development, commercialisation and marketing of new office projects and business parks in Belgium and the Netherlands.

In 2004 she co-founded the Quares Group, a multi-disciplinary player in real estate and property funds. In 2013, under Quares, she brought Qrf City Retail to the stock exchange. She was CEO of the RREC until 2019.

Until June 2022, she has been active in care and care real estate, as CEO of Aldea Group, an unlisted real estate fund and operator of care centres.

As CEO she will soon start an initiative to make residential property more sustainable.

Anneleen Desmyter sits on the Advisory Board of Groep Christiaens (construction and residential developments) and the Cure Care Network. In addition, she has held various directorships in recent years (Thomas More Hogeschool, Qrf City Retail, Quares).
